To whom it may concern:

I am writing on behalf of Gaby Westphal in regard to her services as a translator, editor and proof reader for our company.

We have collaborated with Ms. Westphal on over a 140 projects since 2001. She has assisted our company with work in the areas of technical and marketing translation. Her attention to detail and skill as a translator and writer have made her a valuable partner.

Gaby is a wonderful collaborator on projects. She is willing to take on challenging work and takes the time to ask questions and fully understand the projects she undertakes. Over the years she has been willing to adopt new tools and work processes that have helped our company and made her more competitive as an independent translator.

Gaby excels at polishing difficult marketing texts, and she has never shied away from challenging technical pieces; being willing to undertake the necessary time and research in order to achieve the best results.

Her responsiveness and reliability are excellent, and she organizes her work schedule to best benefit her clients.

I most highly recommend Gaby thanks to her professional attitude and abilities.

Sincerely,

Scott Bass
President
