

London, 3rd December 2009Allianz Global Corporate & Specialty - Reference for Gabriele Westphal

We work with Ms. Westphal for the production of our international employee magazine.

As the tone of this magazine is rather light-hearted, it is very important for us that the translator can convey the style and different nuances of the articles, rather than just produce a word-for-word translation. We were very impressed by how Ms. Westphal managed to bring out the exact meaning of the text while adapting it to the culture of our German audience. She is very responsive, flexible and always meets the required deadlines. We will certainly work with Ms. Westphal again on future translation projects.
